EMERGING TECHNOLOGIES
SUMMER LEARNING PROGRAM

JUNE 15 - JULY 31, 2020
MONDAY - FRIDAY

Explore hi-tech from safety of your home during this online summer program.
AGES 13-17

YOU WILL LEARN:
- Computer literacy
- Coding and artificial intelligence
- Modern electronics
- Robotics
- Automation: programmable logic controllers and Arduino
- Website development and design

DID YOU KNOW?
- More than 65% of young people will work in jobs that don’t currently exist
- Cyber-physical systems fueled disruptive the Fourth Industrial Revolution, or Industry 4.0.

REGISTER HERE

This unique opportunity is offered at no cost to attendees thanks to the support of Indian River State College and Children Services Council of St. Lucie County.

FOR MORE INFORMATION, CONTACT KYLE COBB AT KCOBB@IRSC.EDU.

This program is funded by Children’s Services Council of St. Lucie County. The Children’s Services Council is a dedicated source of revenue established by voter referendum to improve the lives of children and families in St. Lucie County. IRSC is an EA/EO educational institution.